

Rising Star Award

Who Is Eligible?

The Rising Star Award recognizes an individual, relatively new to the industry, who exceeded expectations by doing more than what was asked of them. Members of the CAEM Nominating Committee are not eligible to win this award.

What are the requirements for consideration?

In order to be considered, recipients must

1. Have held membership of CAEM for one to three years
2. Have made an outstanding volunteer contribution and 'gone above and beyond' on at least one CAEM Committee
3. Have 5 years or less of industry experience
4. Be either an Associate or Expo Member
5. Cannot be a member of the CAEM Board of Directors

How is a submission made?

Nominations must be submitted by a CAEM member. Nominators may be either an Expo or Associate Member.

Who should endorse this nomination?

The nomination must be endorsed by 2 CAEM members from different companies. The nomination must be accompanied by a written description of the nominee detailing the nominee's achievements and describing how the nominee's impact has enhanced CAEM. This description must be a minimum of 100 words. Submissions not meeting this requirement will not be considered. Members of the CAEM Nominating Committee cannot endorse this nomination.

Submissions not meeting all requirements will not be considered

How is the Nomination Evaluated?

The CAEM Nominating Committee is responsible for reviewing and determining whether or not the nomination meets the criteria set out in the Nomination Information. All nominations will be held in the strictest of confidence.

When is the Award presented?

The award winner will be announced at the CAEM Awards of Excellence.

What is the Deadline for submission?

The fully completed nomination form and written description must be received at the CAEM office by December 14, 2018.
