ANNOUNCEMENT:

It is with great happiness that we welcome Ken Jattan at GSS as Consultant, Special Events and Crisis Management with 30+ years of commitment in the exposition and events industry. His experience spans across the fields of Event Management, Customs & Logistics, and Registration & Hospitality across Canada and the US.

Ken is an active member of CAEM and has volunteered his time on various committees throughout his service. He holds a CEM designation through the IAEE program, which includes field related courses such as Risk & Crisis Management, Event Operations, and general security knowledge.

He is also certified by the Ministry of Labour – Worker and Safety Awareness, Smart Serve and First Aid Certified programs. During his time as an Event Manager, Ken was a lead architect in partnership with Toronto's First Responders and City Hall, and a vital part in the development and execution of the Event Preparedness Plan in grand scale events, such as concerts.

Continuous growth and learning are not just part of Ken's mindset, but a great contributor to his success in the industry. In order to be of greater service, he is currently advancing his knowledge of pandemic planning as outlined by BOMA Canada – Guide to Pandemic Planning and Pandemic Preparedness & Response Plan by the Hotel Association of Canada.

With his combined history across multiple fields – Ken brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to share with our clients, to help lead them through a safe event. His involvement in all facets – from production to management, and all event planning in between, has rendered him an excellent communicator, a compassionate leader, and a manager with a solid understanding of event client needs. His intimate knowledge of venues as event spaces, is an invaluable addition to the security planning process.

Ken's modest and friendly demeanor make him approachable to his clients, and his commendable dedication and work ethic make him an outstanding professional. His attention to detail, commitment to customer service, along with his expertise on events of all scopes and sizes, will be of great benefit to his new clients at GSS.

Please join us in welcoming Ken Jattan to GSS, by reaching out to him with your warm wishes, and with your security related questions.

He is happy to be of service, immediately!
