MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

CAEM has two main categories of membership: Individuals who plan and produce trade shows, consumer shows, and events are referred to as Exposition Members. Individuals who work for an organization that supplies products/services used by trade shows, consumer shows, and events are referred to as Associate Members.

Please review the membership category definitions below and select the one that describes your role within the industry. If you have any questions regarding this application form, please call 416.787.9377 or email info@caem.ca.

- Exposition Member: an individual whose primary activity is the management, planning and production of expositions and events, or is acting in an exposition consultant capacity. Please complete the Exposition Member Application.

In addition to producing expositions and/or events does your organization supply products/services used by expositions and events? Yes No

If you answered yes to this question, please contact the CAEM office at info@caem.ca before proceeding with this application.

- Associate Member: a company or organization that provides or represents providers of products or services used by expositions and events in the normal course of business. An individual that is part of management or ownership of an organization that also provides management, planning or production of expositions, or acts in an exposition consultant capacity shall be an Associate Member. Please complete the Associate Member Application as well as the Associate Member Category Listing.

NOTE: Membership is from January 1 to December 31. For new members, the first-year membership fee must be paid in full and CAEM will pro-rate the subsequent year. Fees are subject to change and current rates will also apply.
