Speaker Bio

Cynthia Osepchuk

Director of Events

Connect Seven Group

A team leader and project management expert with almost 2 decades of leading strategic and driven teams. Her career is powered by her ambitious attitude, strong relationships, and incredible growth mindset.

Cynthia is a powerhouse professional who seeks to bring out the best in her team and clients and dig deeper to better understand their needs. She enjoys mentoring and coaching. She thrives when developing strategies with clients, whether identifying creative ways to elevate the attendee experience, finding new revenue sources, guiding leadership teams through strategy sessions, or determining how to re-imagine an event.

Cynthia is responsible for overseeing operational delivery of ConnectSeven's events and team, ensuring that each client's needs are exceeded, and making sure each event team creates memorable experiences focused on sustainability.

With a diverse background including marketing, sales, venue management, and conference management, Cynthia brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to her clients and teams. When not working with the team and clients, Cynthia can be found outdoors camping, skiing, or hiking with her dog.
