Paul Burke
General Manager, Toronto

GES

In February of 2024, Paul Burke recently entered the tradeshow industry and joined the GES Canada team as General Manager of the Toronto location headquarters. With countless years of experience specializing in Operations, Scheduling, and Facility Planning in the aviation sector, Paul excelled at Air Canada, fostering strategic partnerships, and driving growth.

In 2023, Paul became Director of Service and Delivery at Gate Gourmet, the exclusive caterer to Air Canada airlines, which showcased and implemented his operational expertise and commitment to top-tier customer service. With a diverse background and a passion for family, movies, martial arts, and music, Paul brings a unique and dynamic perspective to his work. Outside of his professional life, he enjoys cooking, traveling, and reading. With his diverse skill set and unwavering dedication to his colleagues, clients and partners, Paul is well-positioned to lead the GES presence within the Toronto market and support its strategic initiatives.
